

The Development of African Private Enterprise:

Lessons and Opportunities for Investors, Collaborators and Students

Presented by Mr. Mark Wentling

Mark Wentling has a bachelor's degree from Wichita State University, and master's degrees in International Strategic Studies from the National War College, and in International Agricultural Development from Cornell University. He has led USAID and NGO programs in several African countries on food, agricultural, nutrition,

PhD, Stern School of Business, New York University
W. Frank Barton Distinguished Chair in International Business &
Professor of Management, Wichita State University.
Director, Center for International Business Advancement &
Chair, World Trade Council of Wichita, Inc.

Graduate Student, Management Science & Supply Chain Management— WSU
President, International Business Studies Association